WELCOME

Welcome to Ian Parkin who is leading our service this morning. We thank you for your time this morning and trust you will enjoy being with us.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Happy birthday to Colin James for 25th May. We hope you have a great day with family and friends and may God bless you throughout the year ahead.

KIDS' CHURCH

We are still looking for volunteers for Kids' Church while Joyce is away. All resources and materials are available so if you could possibly help out even for a week or two, please put your name on the list on the table in the foyer, next to the dates you are available.

PRAYER POINTS

Please continue to pray for Dorothy Karoos and Eve Wallis who are both in hospital. Please also keep the Hungerford family in your prayers.

NEW ROSTERS

The roster for July to December is now on the noticeboard. Please put your name next to the tasks you are able to assist with.

We are looking for an additional volunteer to help with the cleaning on the first weekend of the month.

REFLECTION ON PENTECOST

Pentecost celebrates the many and varied expressions of God's love and wisdom. The spirit blows where it wills, embracing all peoples. God's spirit touches every life, aiming us toward communion, inspiration, and creation. A living God calls us to expect great things – of ourselves and of God. This adventurous Spirit is surely at work among the Pentecost Christians. Their experiences drive them to share words of graceful transformation with people of all nations. Lives are joined and transformed, despite the differences of race and class. We are one and many in God's ever-surprising Spirit. Let us breathe in God's spirit, making every moment a prayer and a mission. – Bruce Epperly – www.patheos.com
