FRONTIER SERVICES SERVICE AND LUNCH

Our service for Frontier Services last Sunday went well with good singing led by the music team, and a great message from Graham Smith. There was also the dedication of the table and vase in memory of Gwen Limbert. There were many visitors including members of Sid Limbert's family and also some of Eve Wallis's family visiting from England. Many thanks to the music team and all others who helped make the service a truly spiritual and moving experience.

The BBQ lunch was attended by approximately 55 people and the food was enjoyed by all. It was a wonderful time of fellowship and many thanks to those who helped and contributed in so many ways.

The amounts raised are as follows:

Proceeds from lunch and donations	$725.00
Proceeds from money box	$205.00
Total	$930.00

Some money left over from donations for Gwen's memorial table will be given to Frontier Services along with the $930.00, which will bring the total to approximately $1000.00.

Thank you to everyone who helped and contributed and for being there.
