THOUGHTS ON LUKE 21:5-19

Jesus instructed his disciples long ago in the face of all kinds of upheavals and direct threats against their bodies and their relationships to do one thing: Always keep trusting and listening to my voice. You'll be given what is needed.

Wars, uprisings, portents, even threats, these are all diversions. They take our eyes off Jesus. So we need to keep trusting Jesus. Listen for Jesus. Help one another listen. His is the wisdom. His are the true words. His is the power to enable us to endure with faithfulness what none of us can escape.

The world as we know it is ending, superseded by the coming of the kingdom of God. Do not be afraid or anxious. Do not try to defend yourself or the world from what God's kingdom brings, and breaks! Rejoice in every sign of the kingdom's coming.

And keep trusting Jesus.
