It will be at the Centre for Ministry on Sunday 18th June, from 12 noon, more details next week.

THOUGHTS ON JOHN 17

In John 17, we get to eavesdrop on a conversation between Jesus and his Father. Sometimes eavesdropping is a bad thing, but sometimes when you overhear a conversation, you hear people you love saying really wonderful things about you. And when that happens, you feel great.

Christians listening in on this conversation have every reason to feel great based on what they hear! We are a people of glory protected by the glorious power and love of God. What a gift it is that Jesus let us listen in on his prayer!
